Get the best out of BYOD

- Keep your kids safe online. Start by learning how to use the parental controls on the device and set up security policies.
- There's nothing worse than your battery running low, make sure the device is charged overnight. Charge and keep devices in a common room to monitor usage when not in class.
- Sharing is caring - with digital learning your child can keep you up to date with their classwork. Ask them to show you projects regularly, You never know you might learn something too.
